

ERCA COMMUNITY CONTRIBUTION SCHOLARSHIP COMPETITION

OFFICIAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

- 1. CAN I APPLY? The ERCA Community Contribution Scholarship Competition (the "Competition") is open to all high school students who are legal residents of the United States. Applicants must: (1) have recognized a need or problem in their community, (2) have determined a way to address this need or solve this problem, (3) have developed an action plan, and (4) have implemented the action plan so as to address the need or solve the problem. The action plan must be a unique project developed by the student, not a project developed by an established group of which the student is a member. All applicants under the age of eighteen (18) or minors at the time of application must have the permission of at least one (1) of their parents and/or legal guardians to apply. By applying, applicants and/or their parents or legal guardians (if such applicants are minors) agree to accept and be bound by all terms of these Official Rules and Regulations ("Official Rules"). Employees (and their immediate families and household members, whether or not related) of Educational Research Center of America, (ERCA), their parent, subsidiary or affiliated entities, advertising or promotion agencies, are not eligible to apply or win. Void where prohibited. Competition is subject to all applicable federal, state and local laws.
- 2. HOW TO APPLY: Applications will be accepted from July 27, 2017 through July 25, 2018 (the "Application Period"). To apply, applicants must complete the official ERCA Community Contribution Scholarship Competition Application ("Official Application Form") in its entirety. The application can be found on the ERCA website, located at www.studentresearch.org/scholarship-application/ (the "Website"); application must be completed and submitted online. To be eligible, all applicants must provide (1) all required personal information including Parent/Guardian's full name and permanent address, city, state, zip; phone number, and email address; (2) applicant's full name and permanent address, city, state, zip; phone number; e-mail address; (3) name of applicant's high school; high school graduation year; high school address (including city, state, and zip); high school phone number; name of applicant's high school guidance counselor; (4) applicant's approximate QPA/GPA average; (5) applicant's school and community activities including work experience; (6) any academic, community, or school-related honors applicant has received; and (7) the name, address, city, state, zip, and phone number of an adult in applicant's community who is familiar with applicant's accomplishments, and the applicant's relationship to them. This adult cannot be applicant's parent/guardian or relative. ERCA may contact this person if applicant is selected as a semi-finalist; (8) a description – of up to 1,000 words - of the community need the applicant's project addressed, or the community problem the applicant's project solved, and the results achieved by the applicant's project. Applications must be received by July 25, 2018; applications received after July 25, 2018, will be held and submitted for judging in any subsequent competition for 2018/2019. Descriptions must be the applicant's original work. All applications (and Descriptions) become the property of Sponsors, will not be acknowledged or returned, and may be used by Sponsors in any manner or media in perpetuity without compensation. The Official Application Form and Description must be written in English. Limit one (1) application per person. Multiple applications from any person and/or duplicate applications will be deemed void. Sponsors are not responsible for misdirected, inaccurate, incomplete, lost, late, delayed, undelivered, damaged or illegible applications, and all such applications will be void. Sponsors are also not responsible for errors or problems which may occur in connection with or relating to the Competition or utilizing the Official Application Form, whether computer, technical, mechanical, human or otherwise, including, without limitation, errors or problems which may occur in connection with the administration of the Competition, the processing or judging of applications or the announcement of scholarship semi-finalists, finalists / winners. Sponsors reserve the right, in their sole discretion, to cancel, modify or prematurely conclude the Competition should any unauthorized intervention or other cause beyond their control corrupt the administration, security or proper operation of the Competition. If the Competition is cancelled, Sponsors may, in their sole discretion, judge all eligible applications received up to time of such action using the judging procedures outlined below to determine the winners. False or deceptive entries or acts will render the applicant ineligible, and Sponsors reserve the right to disqualify any applicant (and void his/her entry) who acts in a disruptive manner or violates these Official Rules.
- 3. JUDGING: Judging will be conducted in two rounds yielding thirty-six (36) Semi-Finalists (the "Semi-Finalists") and eighteen (18) Finalists (the "Finalists" or "Winners"), respectively. 3-a) Thirty-six (36) Semi-Finalists will first be selected by a panel of ERCA staffers on or about August 17, 2018, from all eligible applications received by the date specified above, according to the following process: (1) Applications are sorted by graduation year to level the playing field for all students by enabling the judges to compare applications from the same class year; (2) Each Community Contribution essay is read and evaluated based on the following criteria: (a) Originality of project idea; (b) Leadership skills applied; (c) Complexity of implementation; (d) Whether adversity had to be overcome during the process; and (e) Grammar, usage, punctuation, and spelling. 3-b) Eighteen (18) Finalists/Winners will be selected from the Semi-Finalists by a panel of teachers based on project quality (see above). 3-c) In the event of a tie in either round of judging, the winner will be determined from among all such tied applicants based first, upon grade point average, second, upon honors and activities, and, if necessary, third, upon references.
- 4. NOTIFICATION OF SEMI-FINALISTS: Semi-Finalists will be notified of their selection on or about August 20, 2018, by certified mail, return receipt requested and are subject to verification by Sponsors. Semi-Finalists (and/or their parents or legal guardians if such potential winners are minors) must provide (1) A copy of the applicant's most recent report card; (2) A copy of the applicant's birth certificate or other proof of legal residency in the United States; (3) The applicant's Social Security number; (4) A signed and sealed letter from the reference cited on the applicant's application verifying that the project the applicant wrote about was actually developed and completed by the applicant, and describing the quality of work done by the applicant in general; (5) A signed publicity release form; and (6) A recent photograph of the applicant (taken within the last 12 months) by September 14, 2018, in order to be eligible to be awarded a prize. If any Semi-Finalist (1) fails to do so, if (2) any notification is returned as undeliverable, or if (3) any student declines to accept a prize or is determined to be ineligible for any reason, such student will be disqualified and, at Sponsors' sole discretion, a runner-up will be notified. Finalists will be notified of their selection on or about October 15, 2018, by certified mail, return receipt requested.
- 5. PRIZES; ODDS OF WINNING: Eighteen (18) scholarships, totaling $25,000, will be awarded to 18 Finalists/Winners as follows: One (1) First Place Award of $5,000; Two (2) Second Place Awards of $2,500 each; Fifteen (15) Third Place Awards of $1,000 each. Awards will be paid by check to the accredited postsecondary educational institution designated by the Winner at the start of the Winner's first applicable postsecondary school term following Winner's selection. Odds of winning will depend, in part, upon the number of applicants from each graduation year. (For example, if 50% of the qualified applicants are high school seniors, 50% of the scholarships will be awarded to high school seniors.) All prizes will be awarded. Receipt of this scholarship may negate or otherwise affect the financial aid the student receives from other sources. Winners and/ or their parents or legal guardians are responsible for the reporting and payment of all federal, state, and local taxes incurred by acceptance and use of the prize (or any portion thereof).
- 6. GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS: By participating in this Competition, applicants (and/or their parent or legal guardian): (1) agree to be bound by the decisions of Sponsors and judges which are final and binding in all matters; (2) grant Sponsors and their designees the right, unless prohibited by law, to use their names, cities and states of residence, voices, pictures and likenesses, without compensation, notification or permission, for the purpose of advertising and publicity in any and all media, now or after known, throughout the world in perpetuity; and (3) acknowledge and agree that Sponsors will own and administer 100% of the copyright in all Descriptions submitted and may exploit, edit, modify, and distribute the Descriptions in any and all media, now or hereafter known throughout the world in perpetuity without limitation at no additional notification or permission of applicants, their parents or legal guardians or any third party. Sponsors expressly disclaim any responsibility and applicants (or their parents or legal guardians if such applicant is a minor) agree to release, indemnify and hold Sponsors harmless for liability, damages or claims for injury or loss to any person or property (including death) relating to, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, participation in this Competition, the acceptance and/or subsequent use or misuse of any prize awarded. Sponsors are not responsible for any injury or damage to persons or property which may be caused directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, from the downloading of any material from the Website, regardless of whether the material was prepared by Sponsors or a third party, and regardless of whether the material is connected to the Website by a hypertext link. Sponsors further assume no liability either for the cancellation, modification or premature conclusion of the Competition for any reason. All such losses or expenses must be borne by the affected applicants or Winners.
- 7. OFFICIAL RULES, WINNERS' NAMES REQUESTS & REMOVAL FROM MAILING LIST: For a copy of these Official Rules or to learn the identity of the Finalists / Winners, log onto the Website. The identity of the Finalists/Winners will be posted on or about January 4, 2019.
